R. H. METCALF IN TROUBLE
Former McKinney Banker Arrested
After Bank Failure in Indiana

His host of friends in Lincoln regret to learn that R. H. Metcalf, who was from the cashiering of the McKinney Deposit Bank at the presidency of a bank at Cicero, Ind., has gotten "in bad" in connection with the failure of that institution a short time ago. A dispatch from Noblesville, Ind., to the Indianapolis Star said of the matter this week:

Noblesville, Ind., March 13.—R. H. Metcalf, who was president of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank at Cicero, Ind., when it was closed by the auditor of state in January, was arrested tonight by Sheriff Woodell, charged with embezzlement. His bond was fixed at $1,000 but up to a late hour tonight his efforts to provide bond had failed and he was still in the custody of Sheriff Woodell.

The specific charge against Metcalf is that on Dec. 13, 1914, he received a deposit of $425 from D. E. Buzan, when he knew the bank was insolvent. Prosecutor Guy issued the warrant upon the complaint of Buzan. The state's attorney asserts he has warrants for the arrest of other persons in connection with the recent bank failures in Hamilton county, but refused to make them public tonight. The Hamilton Trust Company of this city also was closed by the state auditor.

Metcalf came to this city three years ago from McKinney, Ky., and purchased the controlling interest in the Cicero bank.

The Equitable Surety Company and the Western Indemnity Company were made defendants in five suits in the Circuit Court growing out of the recent bank failures in Hamilton county. The defendants were sureties for the Hamilton Trust Company of this city and the Farmers & Merchants' Bank of Cicero for the deposit of public money when they were closed by the auditor of state. The suits are to recover the full amount of the deposits. The county had $18,146.66 with the Hamilton Trust Company and $4,771.94 with the Cicero bank. Jackson Township had $2,300 in the Cicero bank and the Cicero school board had $2,200 in the same bank. The Noblesville school board asks for the return from the Hamilton Trust Company of $2,300. It is understood that the bonding companies intend to pay the various sums without further litigation and then share in the pro rata distribution of the assets when the receiver settles up the affairs of the

Mrs. J. D. Burton Dies at Hustonville

Mrs. J. D. Burton passed away at her home near Hustonville Sunday afternoon at about one o'clock after a lengthy illness of stomach trouble. Mrs. Burton was a good Christian woman and will be greatly missed in her neighborhood. She was a devoted member of the Baptist church. Besides her husband she leaves four children, four daughters, Mrs. A. P. Jones, of Dallas, Texas; Misses Ethel, Alice and Lena Belle, who are at home, and five sons, Charles Burton, of Dallas, Texas; Samuel Burton, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Arthur Burton, of Oklahoma; Gilmore Burton, of Hustonville, and Walter, who is at home, one brother, John Badgett, of Casey county, two sisters, Mrs. Sanford Rutherford, of Hustonville, and Mrs. Cash, of Kansas. The deceased was a daughter of the late John Badgett, of Garrard county. The interment took place Monday afternoon at three o'clock after short services at the grave of J. C. McClary.

AND STOMACH SOURS

"Pape's Diaperpsin" Ends Indigestion, Gas, Diaperpsin and Stomach Misery in Five Minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diaperpsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diaperpsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation in the bowel, the food you eat, besides it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite, but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diaperpsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

Witnesses for the Government in the trial of Donn M. Roberts, charged with conspiring to corrupt Federal elections, testified to having made irregular registration entries at the instance of Roberts, who is Mayor of Terre Haute.

To The Housewife

Madam, if your husband is like most men he expects you to look after the health of yourself and children. Coughs and colds are the most common of the minor ailments and are most likely to lead to serious diseases. A child is much more likely to contract diarrhea or scarlet fever when it has cold. If you inquire into the merits of the various remedies that are recommended for coughs and colds, you will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy stands high in the estimation of people who use it. It is prompt and effectual, pleasant and safe to take, which are qualities especially to be desired when a medicine is intended for children. For sale by all dealers.

Plans are being made by the Paxton interests of Cincinnati, which own the whisky at the old Taylor distillery, on Dix river, north of Stanford for bottling the entire lot of whisky remaining in a warehouse in Lincoln county and when it is bottled and shipped out, the last vestige of the legalized manufacture of the stuff will have been removed from the confines of the country. There are one or two brandy distilleries in the county but no whisky plants in operation.

The whisky at Taylor's old plant is now four years of age, and has been in barrels at the warehouse in that length of time ripening. There are said to be about 550 barrels left of an initial capacity of 750 barrels, the remainder having been withdrawn for shipment in barrels. A bottling force will probably be sent here from Cincinnati to bottle the booze and ship it out. This whisky has a great reputation being known as Edgewood and it is said to be exceptionally fine quality of stuff. Ever since the plant was closed down and dismantled since the death of the late Henry Taylor, the government has kept a storekeeper on duty guarding the whisky in bond and the owners have also had a man on duty representing their interests. The immense warehouse in which the whisky is stored is now owned by J. C. Fox, who bought the farm, and it is understood that he plans to convert it into a mammoth tobacco barn.

Big Fire at Middlesboro

Fire broke out at Middlesboro Monday in the large dry goods store of Joe Tamer and destroyed property estimated to be worth $70,000. The property destroyed is as follows: Large dry goods store of Joe Tamer, and building, $20,000; two-story stone building of New South Brewery & Ice Co., $20,000; saloon, first floor occupied by Shelly Turner, $5,000; fruit stand of Fred Tamer, $3,000; second floor occupied by clothing, hardware, $5,000. To store brick building of P. C. Breeding, $6,000, occupied by dry goods store, $10,000; fruit store and building of A. Marder, $5,000. Most all the property burned was partially covered by insurance.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

Last Friday morning Supt. W. C. Wilson called all the boys from the fifth grade through the high school in the chapel and gave a very interesting talk about athletics in high school. He told them what great advantages there were to them, physically, mentally and every other way. And a boy would be required to take part in some way from now on. He told the captain of the team to keep a roll book and call the roll every day and in that way he could tell who was taking part. In connection with this he gave another lecture to the cigarette smokers, (as usual) and of course everybody knows what he said about the dope sticks.

Track Meet to be Held in Lexington

The schedule for the Interscholastic Tournament that will be held at the University of Kentucky May 12, 13, 14 and 15 was given last year by William L. Anderson, physical director of the University. The annual tournament was held on Stoll Field last May, with the contests in music and oratory at the Woodland Park Auditorium. Much interest was aroused at that meeting, and indications are that the tournament this year, will be larger and better than last. The high schools are divided into two classes, A and B, according to the size of the town and there will be a meet for each of the two classes, following which will be an interclass meet.

Wilson Takes Interest

Mr. Wilson has taken a deep interest in athletics and Stanford should have a winning team. We will not forget that Mr. Wilson took a team from Stanford last year and took everything that class B offered. He has the material and with a little practice ought to top class B. The musical and oratorical contests will be held the same dates. We will have representatives in the said contests.

Prospects Good for a Bass Ball Team

Last week the base ball team began to throw the horse-hide around the lot, and we found a bunch in their number about thirty, all in their uniforms. True for the first team, and we are sure we will have a team. The new comers will probably give the regulars a fight for their positions. Wood and Cash will still do the receiving. First base seems to be the most popular place of the day, with Coleman, Mobley and Gover trying to hold it down. As we can use them all up then, one of the said gents will probably land an outer berth, as they are clouters, and that is what the team needs. S. Embry and Tucker are hanging around the keystone base and both are showing much pep. Clem Hill is trying to fill his brother's shoes around S. S., but Anderson says he has no chance. Captain Perkins will still play around the third cushion. Everybody and his granny are trying for the three fields. There were sixteen out there last weekend, holding, "King M. One." About half this long next week, so Shanks, J. Embry, Cash, Nee and one or two of the infield men will have a chance to battle for the gardens. Shanks and Embry were regulars last year. The pitchers are passing, and pitching a little but they have not cut loose with their speed and curves yet, on account of their arms. Lepew is still on the force. Embry and Gover will turn in the box, but if anybody ever happens to ask you, tell them we have some southpaw. There is a guy that stands six feet two inches and weighs about 175 pounds and is about to drive Wood's arm into his ribs. Pet Sampson is the gent. With the addition of Sampson, the pitching staff should be strong. Get your season ticket from Harry Farmer at Penny's Drug Store. (Contributed.)

Billy Sunday has been booked for a revival of eight weeks in Louisville March and April.

A pain in the side or back that catches you when you straighten up calls for a rubbing application of PEPPER'S GOURDS PLASTER applied to the chest to draw out inflammation and BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP to relax tightness of the contracted muscles and permits ordinary bodily motion without suffering or inconvenience. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Shugars' Drug Store, Stanford, & Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Judge Robert J. Breckinridge for many years a prominent citizen of Danville, died at his home there Saturday after an illness of several months. He was eighty one years of age.

Judge Breckinridge was a son of the late Dr. Robert Breckinridge and was a brother of General Joseph Breckinridge, of Washington, and of the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Lexington. He was born in Baltimore, Md., September 14, 1834.

During the Civil War Judge Breckinridge served in the Confederate army, and was one of the first to raise a company to fight for the Southern cause.

As captain of the Second Kentucky Regiment of Infantry Volunteers, he served under Colonel W. Hanson. Later he became one of the twelve Kentucky members of the Confederate Congress, but resigned this position to re-enter the Confederate army. Judge Breckinridge was twice married in 1865 to Miss Kate D. Morrison, a daughter of Moses B. Morrison, of Lexington and in July 1889, to his sister, Miss Lilla A. Morrison. There were two sons by his first marriage—Hobart and Breckinridge, who was a scholar gentleman as well as a splendid preacher and he held the closest attention of his congregations during both discourses. He makes the meaning of the gospel plain that the most ignorant can understand.

Services will be held each day at 10 a.m. in the afternoon and at half past seven at night, and an earnest invitation is extended to all to attend, and bring the unsaved.

Judge Breckinridge was educated at Centre College and at Transylvania University and the University of Virginia. He graduated in law in 1856 and removed to St. Louis, but after two years returned to Kentucky and was elected city attorney of Lexington, his first public office.

After the war he returned to Kentucky and with his family settled on a farm in Lincoln county. In 1874 he went to Danville to live. In 1868 and again in 1876 he was delegate to the Democratic national convention, and in the latter year he was elected judge of Common Pleas Court in a district composed of eight counties, and in August 1889 he was the choice of the people for the State Senate from the Eighteenth district.

Judge Breckinridge was one of the most prominent figures in the celebrated Goebel election of 1899. He was elected Attorney General on the ticket with William Goebel but was unseated in the contest which followed. He successfully practiced law until about a year before his death, when he became enfeebled and retired.

Judge Breckinridge was a man of extremely kind and companionable disposition and a most devoted husband and father. He was a gifted lawyer and in his prime was one of the most eloquent advocates in Kentucky. He was buried at Lexington Sunday.

Uncle Sam After Deposters

The Treasury Department is organizing an elaborate force to capture violators of the State-wide prohibition law, which went into effect March 1. It was announced last week that R. W. Weeks of Murray, Ky., has been appointed a Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue in charge of the enforcement of this law in Kentucky.

His salary was fixed at $1,600 a year, and he will be allowed $800 more for traveling expenses. Another deputy for this service will be allowed to Kentucky. He is to be named Senator Beckham, who is in Florida. Only pharmacists are eligible for these appointments. Under the Federal antinearotic law, as it is called, all persons who produce, import, manufacture, compound, deal in, dispense, sell, distribute or give away opium, or coca leaves, their salts, derivatives or preparations, must register with Collectors of Internal Revenue and pay a special tax.

Physicians, dentists, and other medical practitioners are exempt, but must keep a record for two years of all sales except where they personally attend the patient.

Local Man Gives a Banquet

Kincaid, of Stanford and Vernon Lee, of Lexington, who are engaged in the tobacco business in Danville, gave a most highly enjoyable banquet at the Shop-Perfect Friday night, says the Danville Military Band. Drye and Mrs. Lucy Miller Bartley, Carl Carter and Miss Lucy Lee Walton, Wesley Embry and Miss Nancy Yeager, Stewart Carson and Miss Lyle Cooper, Prescott Brown and Miss Josephine Brady, William Carson and Miss Margaret Beck, Miss Mary De Beck, Miss Sallie Burdette, Miss Mary Burdette, Joseph Hill, Strother Carter, Elwood Totten, James Cooper, Hartwell Shanks and Miss Lettie Walker McKinney, Margaret Carpenter, Francis Weatherford, Shirley Gover, Lee Perkins and James Tribble.

Revival services began at the Baptist church Sunday morning and it is expected that they will continue about two weeks. The pastor, Rev. D. C. Preacher, preached two strong sermons Sunday morning and evening. Other congregations gave way at the evening service and the church was crowded.

Rev. H. L. Winburn, pastor of the Walnut Street Baptist church, of Louisville, arrived Monday morning, and conducted his first service Monday afternoon at three o'clock, to a good crowd. He preached again at night to a nice sized congregation, considering the inclemency of the weather. All who heard him were greatly pleased with his work. He spoke from the theme, "Coming to Jesus" in the afternoon, and at night on the "Preaching of Jesus." Dr. Winburn is a scholarly gentleman as well as a splendid preacher and he held the closest attention of his congregations during both discourses. He makes the meaning of the gospel plain that the most ignorant can understand.

With the Anti-Saloon League endorsement of the State-wide prohibition a route was selected as the state aid route by the Anti-Saloon League of Kentucky. In a recent meeting of the Kentucky Anti-Saloon League of Mr. H. V. McDermott, Mr. Henry Bosworth, and other members of the Fiscal Court, this endorsement was given to the Lexington Leader. Rockefeller's close servants say he gave money at the rate of $5.05 for every minute during 1914. The sum totaled $1,420,218.64. That's some giving, but when it is told that his income is over $50 a minute it will be seen that he could give several times the amount and have it handed back to him many fold by the users of coal oil, gasoline and the other commodities on which he has a lead pipe cinch.

The warden of Sing Sing says the prison is not a fit place for boys. Of course, it isn't. It was built for them. But it is a safe wager that the aforesaid warden will swing on to his job as custodian of the awful place just as long as the powers that be will permit him.

Cleveland, Ohio, saloon men are trying to raise funds to bring Evangelist Billy Sunday to that wicked city. But then there are people in the Buckeye State who don't stop at anything when it comes to getting filthy lucre. They think, no doubt, that Billy will draw the people and the people will make them draw the beer. And they may be right.

The suffragettes had a dog fall Saturday. The Texas House, by a majority of three votes, went against the measure, but the governor of Iowa put his signature to both the woman's suffrage and prohibition amendments recently passed by the Legislature of the corn State.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a 25-cent bottle of Dandruff at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scourf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Kentuckians In Oklahoma

A dispatch to the Courier-Journal from Oklahoma Sunday said: The Kentucky Club of Tulsa was rejuvenated Wednesday and held one of the best meetings that organization has ever had. Mesdames Guy Eaton, O. F. Sinks, Wash Hudson, Conn Linn, Ed. Crossland, C. P. Chenault, Allen Yeager and Miss Alice Rankin had charge of the refreshments, which were served in old Kentucky fashion and in the old Kentucky ways. Speeches were made by a number of residents of the State and music in keeping with the occasion was rendered.

Mrs. N. A. Embry, born and reared in Kentucky, aged 99 years, died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. J. C. Menifee, wife of Sapulpa, Okla. This week Mrs. Embry, whose name was Pote in her maiden days, was born in the old Daniel Boone fort July 14, 1815. Being the daughter of a pioneer and the wife of a man with the disposition, she also became possessed of pioneer fever and the family went from Kentucky to Tennessee, from there to Kansas, thence to Colorado and then to Oklahoma, settling in Creek country, near Sapulpa. A few months ago a picture was taken of Mrs. Embry and a daughter, a granddaughter, a great-granddaughter, five generations, all dwelling in Oklahoma and living in the same section of the State. Mrs. Embry was buried at Sapulpa Wednesday afternoon.

Formal Opening Days Wednesday and Thursday, March 17 and 18

Fashion plays an important part in the life of every woman. She should not be a slave to it, and need not be; but every woman who cares about her personal appearance likes to be correctly dressed.

To be correctly dressed does not necessarily mean the frequent buying of new things. It does mean the choosing of garments that possess the correct style features of the season, and so well made that they will look well for a full season at least.

These Wooltex coats, suits and skirts for spring are in refined, conservative styles—embodied in materials and tailoring of the highest character—garments in which you will be well and stylishly dressed for at least a full season.

Examine these Wooltex tailored garments closely. See how well they are made, with all the character of the skillful tailoring that you usually find only in custom-made garments. Yet Wooltex tailored coats, suits and skirts are very reasonable in cost considering their high character. Don't fail to come in during this full showing of New Wooltex Styles.

WOOLTEX COATS at $15 to $25

WOOLTEX SUITS at $25 to $40

WOOLTEX SKIRTS at $6.50 to $10.00

One dose generally convinces. The most chronic cases rarely need over three doses. This book will be mailed free on request. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question if quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.
